About Meir Ezra

Meir is an international entrepreneur with multi-million dollar businesses and clients in the US, Canada, Israel, Italy, Colombia, Russia, India, China, Romania, the Dominican Republic, South Africa, Germany, the Czech Republic, Turkey and many others.

From his start as a former high-ranking submarine diver in the Israeli navy, to his creation of Timemaker, a software program that has revolutionized how thousands of businesses manage their communication, Meir's passion is helping others.

As part of this drive to make a difference in people's lives, Meir has been involved in working with high level government officials on projects related to education and business development. He was also a regular guest on The Odetta Show (The Oprah of Israel) and would speak on topics ranging from business to parenting.

One of his most notable accomplishments includes establishing the most successful distributor of gasoline management systems, a company that within three years grew to $100,000,000.

He has consulted companies such as BP (British Petroleum), Motorola, IBM and loves working with entrepreneurs and small business owners. His most recent company, Guaranteed Prosperity, is a training, coaching and implementation company that helps it's clients succeed beyond their wildest dreams. Meir has shared the stage with dozens of top speakers from around the globe and is known as the "gurus" coach.

Meir is passionate about learning and attributes much of his success to teachings of Judaism, Buddaism, Christianity, L. Ron Hubbard, and many others. He shares this knowledge with his students.

Active in many personal activities such as karate, motorcycling and kite surfing, Meir is very much a family man, deeply in love with his wife of over 25 years and three beautiful children.

“ The only value a person has is in how many people he can help. A person's bank account never determines ones value. ”

What Others Say About Meir

"Meir's teaching is unique and spectacular, filled with so much wisdom and heart."

- Ingrid Wang

"I've learned from the best of the best in the personal development industry, but Meir is the only teacher that has something fresh and important to say. His information and insight are profound ... and it just plain works."

- Randy Lee

"Meir is possibly the most educated person alive. He teaches comprehensive powerful and internally consistent technology that have helped me personally and entrepreneurially. Meir is a true master!"

- Raymond Aaron

"We thought we were running a successful business, but it felt we were missing a piece of the puzzle. Only to find that we were not missing just a piece, but the entire foundation. We are now equipped with the knowledge and power to organize our real estate business beyond our imagination."

- Heather Carrigg, Young, Entrepreneurial realtor

"The concepts Meir teaches are extremely powerful and easy to understand. While I have been in business in many high level roles for over 15 years, I have not been exposed to this type quality content."

- Joe Gnapp, JMG Business Consulting, Inc., Wesley Chapel, FL

"Meir confronted me today. He shot holes in my belief that the nagging, niggling little undone tasks in my life didn't really matter and didn't effect my business. He showed me that they are, in fact, diverting energy away from my ability to move my company forward. Completing those tasks will increase the speed with which my company will grow. I have created the action plan to complete these energy thieves."

- Ruth Rymal, Mojo Restoration, LLC
